Personal Care Apartments

At Forest Hills Commons, we've got the best people and that makes all the difference. That doesn't just refer to our team members; it refers to our residents as well. Whether they're in our independent living or personal care apartments, our residents take every opportunity to make their golden years memorable for themselves, for their families and even for our team members.

Speaking of our team members, they are experts in senior care who are not just doing a job, but following a calling. The minute you walk into our retirement community and meet them, you'll understand exactly how dedicated they are. They're committed to giving you or your loved one the best care possible

We are proud to call Louisville home and we are conveniently located near many local landmarks including Oxmoor Mall, Louisville Zoo, The Parklands and Jeffersontown Gaslight Square.
