Unit Manager • Eagle Valley Meadows

Eagle Valley Meadows is proud to have someone of Antonette Sander's caliber and quality represent the community. Antonette has worked at Eagle Valley Meadows for nine years, first starting as a CNA and then becoming an LPN through the O2NE program. She was later promoted to Unit Manager due to her amazing work ethic and strong leadership.

Antonette shows passion in her job every day and is committed to providing excellent care. Families and residents know her well and utilize her as a trusted resource. In addition to the excellent care she gives, she is a strong leader and encourages her staff to give nothing but the best for their residents.

Her peers and supervisors are happy to sing her praises. "She shows care and compassion to everyone she speaks to. She knows the heartbeat of Eagle Valley Meadows and it shows in the pride she has in her job. Anntonette is the definition of excellence."

Anntonette loves her job and working in long-term care. She says, "I feel like I was sent to do this. It is my calling. I am here because American Senior Communities gave me a chance and believed in me when no one else did. They helped me better my life and not struggle to provide for my kids." Eagle Valley Meadows is blessed to have such an exemplary team member.
