Terre Haute - Employees of American Senior Communities Centers across the state, including Terre Haute, receive prestigious awards for providing outstanding service and care to local patients and residents.

Honorees included nurses and nursing assistants, business office staff, therapists and others who consistently demonstrate a commitment to excellence, dedication to his or her job, a positive attitude, and a whatever-it-takes passion for customer service.

They were recognized during ASC's 18th Annual Quest for Excellence awards, which highlight the professional and caring service expected of ASC's 10,000 employees across the state.

Among the 10,000, were 88 employees were awarded for their passion and hard work, including Christina Stunich of Springhill Village located in Terre Haute.

The awards night was held at the J.W. Marriott in Downtown Indianapolis.

"ASC's Quest for Excellence Award winners promote and maintain the ASC culture of caring for others while demonstrating the highest level of integrity," said ASC Chief Executive Officer Donna Kelsey. "These exceptional people embody ASC's commitment by keeping its values of compassion, attentiveness, relationships and excellence as their highest priorities."

ASC provides a variety of services, including Moving Forward Rehabilitation, Auguste's Cottage Memory Care, Skilled Nursing Care, Long Term Care, Respite and Hospice Care, and living centers, including Garden Homes and Independent Living Apartments.
