Assisted Living Apartments

Caring people make the difference at Brownsburg Meadows Assisted Living. That doesn't just refer to our team members; it refers to our residents as well. Whether they're in our independent living or assisted living, our residents take every opportunity to make their golden years memorable for themselves, for their families and even for our team members. Our team members take care of housekeeping, plumbing, lawn service and more so you can live effortlessly and spend your time doing the things you love.

Residents can enjoy living independently in our Garden Homes, or if they may need additional services, they can move seamlessly into our Assisted Living Apartments. Brownsburg Meadows offers a full continuum of lifestyle and care options to cater to your unique needs as they may arise, whether that requires services like 24-hour skilled nursing care, long term care or memory care support.

Conveniently located on Highway 267, Brownsburg Meadows is close to downtown Brownsburg, featuring several locally owned restaurants and shops. You'll have peace of mind knowing that your loved one is close to important amenities and services such as IU West Hospital and the new Hendricks Regional Health Brownsburg Hospital located right off of I-74.
